RIGHT OF WAY: [Pass this on to your non-cycling motorist friends.]

It's a fact: More bikes are on the road. To minimize accidents, drivers need to be aware of them and act safely. Some tips:

Give Them Space: Recognize that bicycles have a right to the road and may legally take the full lane. Allow at least 3 feet of space while passing.

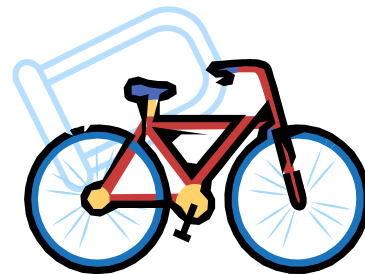

Respect their speed: Do not underestimate how fast some cyclists are moving. In many circumstances a bike can travel as fast as a car. Never turn in front of a bicycle, even if you think it's traveling slowly.

When in doubt wait: If you can't allow the bike 3 feet of space, wait to pass until you can—just as you would for any other slow-moving vehicle.

Be patient: Do not honk or yell at bicyclists. You could startle them or cause them to veer.

Be careful when opening your car door: When parked along roadways, look for bicyclists before opening your door, as a cyclist may be hugging the side of the road, right in the line of your car door. Open your car door into a rider's path and you may cause a serious accident.

Look for bikes: Keep an eye out for cyclists, and always look both ways before exiting a driveway or intersection.

GVCC Bi-Monthly Meeting Minutes

Our bi-monthly GVCC meeting was held at Fresco North on Calle Real, Tuesday, 3/16 with dinner at 6:00pm and the meeting at 7:00pm; however, those present for dinner ate fast and the meeting started before 7:00 so yours truly arrived late. President Doris recapped by circulating the mail, Lori did the ride calendar and Cheryl presented the treasurer's report.

Of most importance was the change in our 2010 PPR date from Saturday, October 9th to Sunday, October 10th at Hans Christian Anderson Park in Solvang. A brief discussion followed concerning pre-PPR and day-of PPR events.

It was motioned and approved by a majority of those present to allocate $50 or less to the Community Environmental Council for the distribution of cycling helmets on Earth Day.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30pm.

Respectfully submitted by
Hildy Hoffmann, Recording Secretary

ADVENTURE CYCLING MAPS: GVCC has received a set of 8 bicycling maps, the complete set for the Lewis & Clark Bicycle Trail. If interested in borrowing these maps, please contact Doris.
